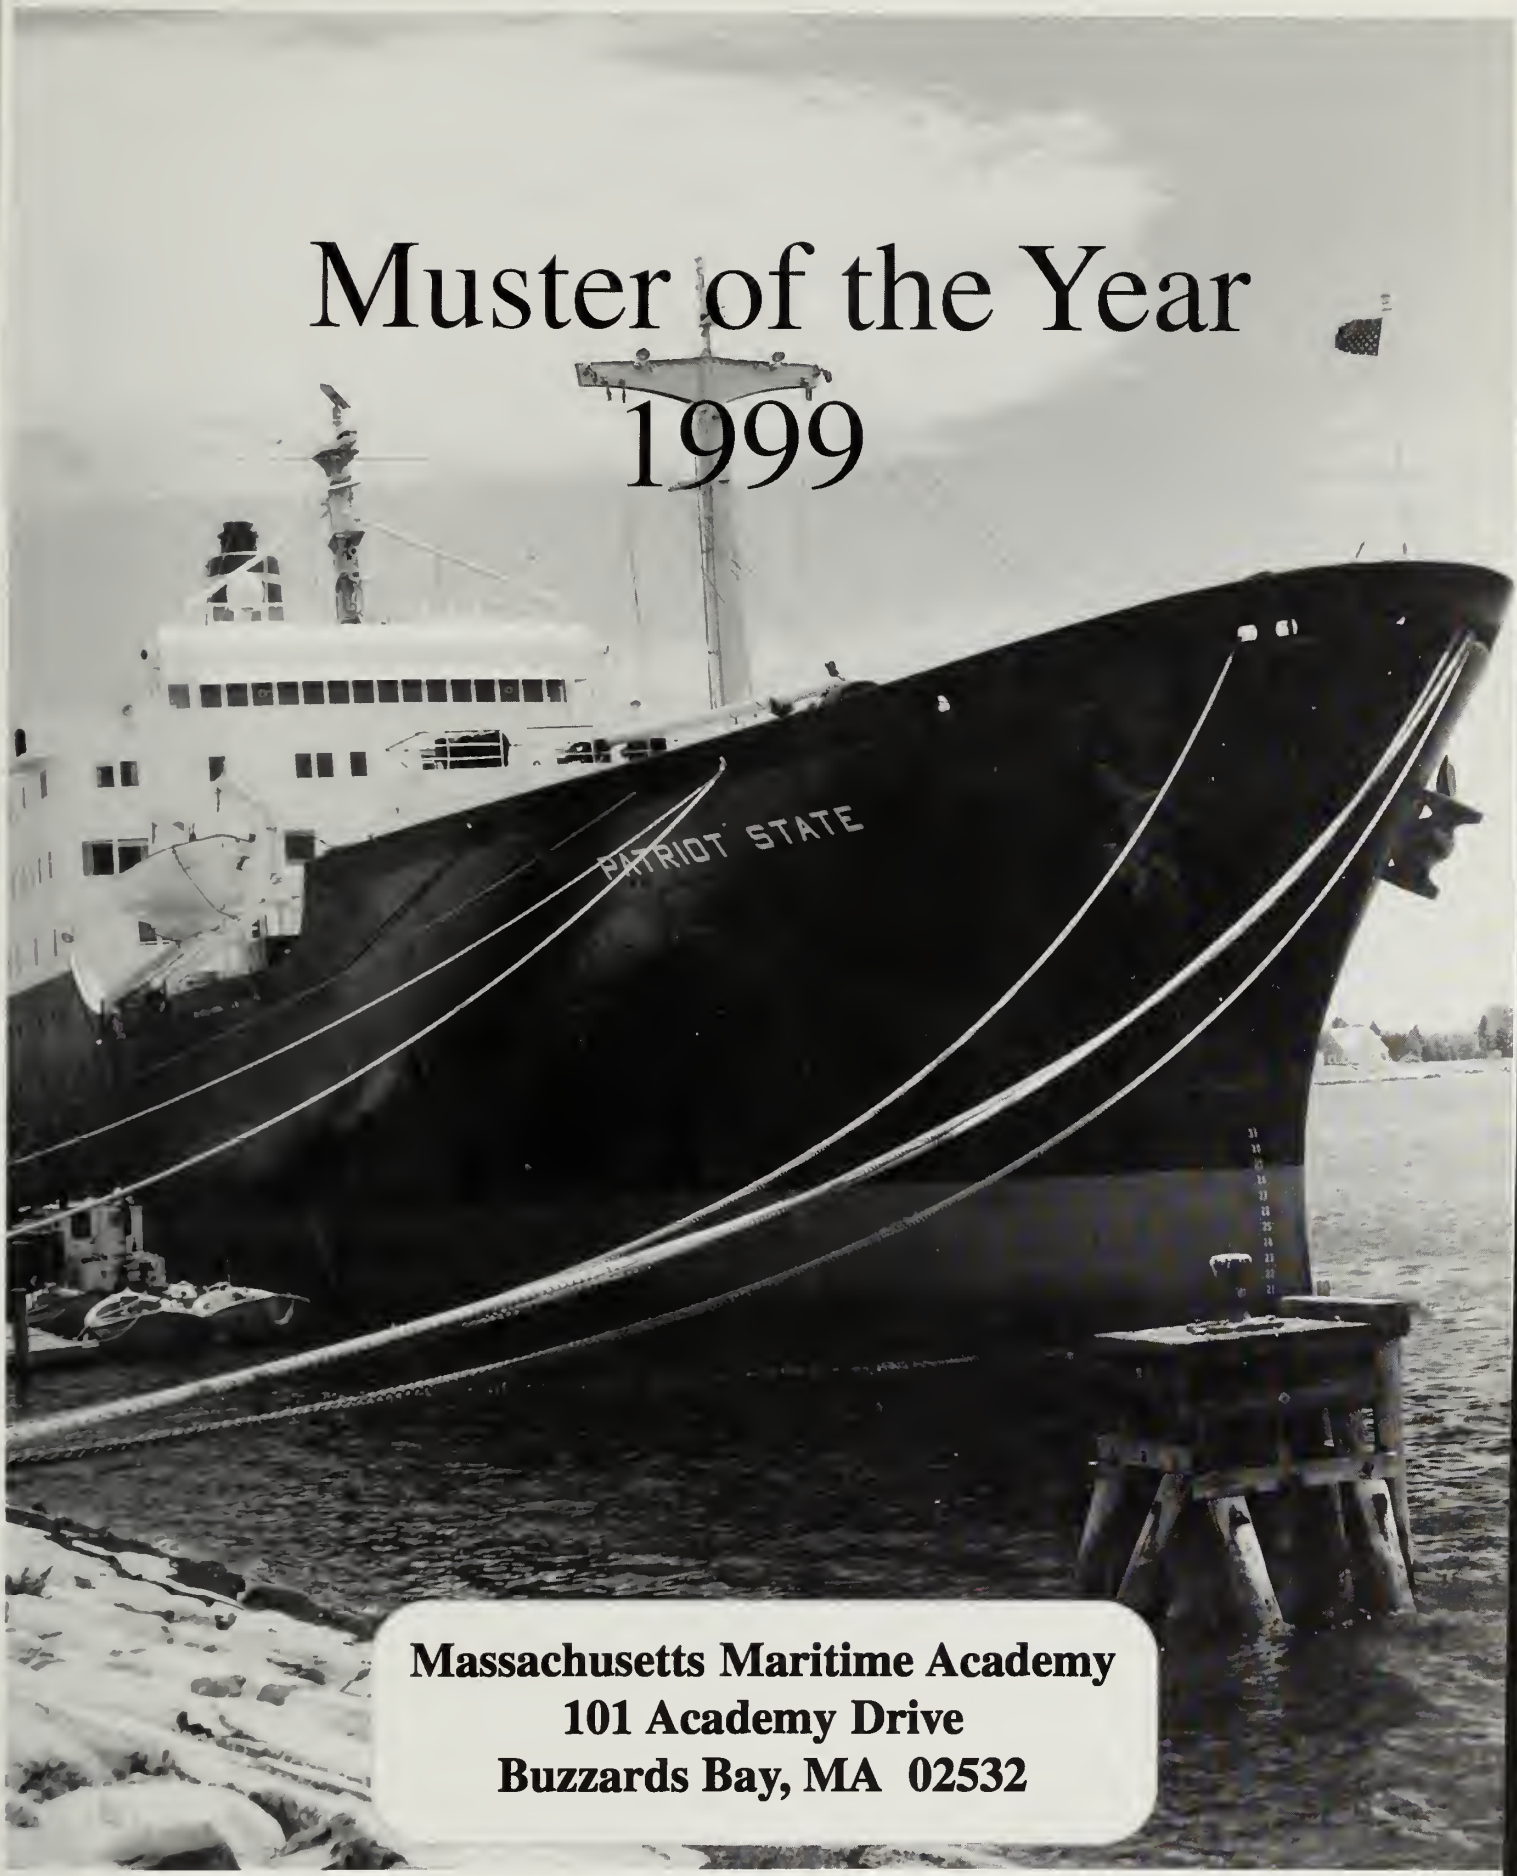
Muster of the Year 1999



Massachusetts Maritime Academy
101 Academy Drive
Buzzards Bay, MA 02532

The 1999 Muster is dedicated to-

Dr. Charles J. Reynolds

Dr. Charles V. Reynolds, Jr. husband, father, naval officer, writer, resercher, historian, and teacher. While Dr. Reynolds has worn many titles over his many years of service, he deserves many accolades for his role as a professor of history at two state college institutions since 1967.

Prior to embarking on his present status as a teacher, Professor Reynolds served in the U.S. Navy on, both, active and reserve duty from 1951 until 1966. He joined the Navy shortly after receiving his Bachelor of Arts in American History from the College of Holy Cross in 1950. In 1967, after receiving his Masters degree in history from Boston College, Dr. Reynolds would begin his tenure at Boston State College. He would teach there as a full professor until the school's closing in 1982. While at Boston State, Dr. Reynolds would complete his dissertation entitled America and the Two Ocean Navy: 1933-1941 and earn a Ph.D. in American History from Boston University in 1978.

With the closing of Boston State College, Professor Reynolds came onboard with Mass. Maritime where he has taught for the past 17 years. He has shared and imparted his love of history and has taught such varied topics as Western Civilization, American Government and Maritime Operations with wit and good humor.

Henry Adams once remarked that "Fine teachers attain a kind of immortality because it is impossible to know when, or if, their influence stops." For over thirty-five years, Dr. Charles Reynolds has achieved his unique and permanent status as a "fine teacher." It is with great honor that the staff of the 1999 Muster dedicates this yearbook to Dr. Charles V. Reynolds, Jr.

Four years sure went by fast. I had a lot of memorable times here and all over the world, and made many great friends that I will never forget. Many thanks to my Mum and Dad, who helped me whenever I needed it and put up with me on the weekends. And also to Kelley, who is the most wonderful girl I have ever met.

Ahh, finally. Thanks Mom & Dad for everything, just think, no more bad report cards or tuition bills. Thanks Jim and Julie for all your support. Melissa, I love you, thank you for always being there, I guess I'll soon find out if it was just the uniform. MMA rugby, what'd ya mean there's no biting? Alumni games here I come! Cruise DO, last chance at bars.

Thank you to mom, Dad, Paul, and Alan. Lacrosse and rugby-tough seasons-good times. All the memories with KC, GB, SC, TF, JB, MM, NK, EF, SM, EW. Ranch o Relaxo '97, ski trip, crew, JR-SR POC, sausages-Boston, UMASS nights, lessons, Newtons, you need it?- I know it, GB 180, Ranch Bed Exchange, coolest sh!t in the world, hiding the vee's , It's fun feels good. Nobody gets hurt... Good luck Class of '99.

Zoe – we had fun. Take care and good luck with Dan. Dave D'Amore – you were right, you are getting better looking. To Danielle & Katie – you don't know Jack! Ha ha! Nick – save a whistle for me. Cruise '95 – Crane Beach and the Reggae Lounge; Cruise '96 – The Rome Trip Toga Party; Cruise '97 – Bourbon Street and voodoo; Cruise '98 – Costa Rican Election and the Baja Club; Trivial Pursuit nights and Monopoly marathons.

5 years is a long time to spend at one place. Not like it's a bad thing. General Patton took 5 years to get through West Point. When asked "why" he said he could not find the library. I would like to thank my parents for their years of love, support, and understanding. To my fellow 4th Co. boys, and all inductees, I'll never forget the good times and I wish you all good luck in your lives and your careers. I'll miss our trips to Scusset Beach, the four-wheeling with Aaron, the late night stake-outs on 495 with Craig, the overseas car rentals, the bar hopping, and the years of midnight missions.

I'd like to thank all the 4th Co. boys, especially EM, CMM, JFP and DML for all the fun times we had. Scusset Beach, power lines, and our many midnight missions. And who can forget about Bob?! Buck-forty all the way! I'm history, I'm out of here, I got the lucky ticket home! May all of you drive fast cars and faster women!

I did it for you, Pops. Mom, I'll just drive home! Thank you for everything. Jon, Pops always tells me how proud he is of you. What else can I say? Sis, I've always looked up to you. You're my favorite sister! Thank you. Granny, Uncle Frank, Uncle Jerry, thank you. Bo and Rose, my home away from home, I made it! It's no wonder you all come down to Florida-this place is cold! Mom and Dad...thanks for everything and...send the bill to Big Enis Burdette, cause...Hell I got to go!!

A fading memory, a forgotten place. A picture of you. Remember, an expression on a face. A very small moment is captured in time, it stays with your heart but it fades from your mind. An emotion you felt, a story recalled, they'll stay with you now, they stayed with you then. You'll never forget how we were and when. All my love, Nate. Thank you Ma and Dad without your love and support. I could not have done it.

Thank you Erin, Will, Peter, Joyce, Mom, and everyone who helped me whether you were family or not.

I'll miss all of my Northern friends - thnaks for all the memories; you'll always have a place to stay down south. Final thanks to all my teachers, sisters (for being there for me), y los demas mopets que han pasado por aqui! This place wouldn't be so bad if it weren't so damn cold!

I'll never forget 5011, my second home, Nikita, Playstation, Montreal, Sugarloaf, Ring Dance '98 and cruise aboard Empire State. Thanks to Andrea, Erin, Kim, Matt, John, Ryan, Pepe and Nick. And, of course, to my best friend Dan, I love you!

I had some great times and made some great friends. Thank you Mom, Dad, family and all my friends from here & home. Good luck to all, remember the most important thing is to be happy. To my best friends, thanks for the memories and good luck! I hope this less traveled path they have been talking about is the right one.

Buc Baseball 1-4 (Capt), Thank you Mom, Dad, Em and Ben for everything you have done for me. Love you guys. Buc Baseball - thank you Coach Corradi. Thank you Nicole - you've made me a better person, love you. To all the guys - Mitch, Stanton, Sully, Koch, Schmid, Kels, Matt, Mone/Pooh Bear (sorry Tim - I had to say it!) Bill, Levis - it's been fun. Dave's dog friend in Barbados, Koch chasing Tigger in Disney, Coach diving into 3rd, the "Bench" - one of Levis' finest accomplishments, Mitch's monkey call at the Trowbridge, Joey-bug. Thank you LCDR A; Eddie Mac - you're the best - thanks, again, Buc Ball!

Just throwing it out there... you guessed it, trying to finish the decade on a good note! To the supportive cast, thanks Ma, the old guy, Dot, FPWII, Mean Jean, the Murphy Clan and Team Toast. Tapa the morning to all! Dr. Whit signing out! Class of 1996...

My family kept me in school and my friends got me through it. Good luck to the SB's, you're going to need it. Thanks to Rugsy, Coach C and every Buc I ever stepped onto the field with. This school won't change you, it just brings out your true nature. Fulfilled the graduation requirements, broke the rules, got demos, served restriction... the rest were just details and memories. I love you Mom, Dad and Rock. And sometimes I see a strange spot in the sky.. a human being that was given to fly.

Buccaneers of 1999

n McSweeney and Andrew Perron represented e Class of '99 on the Men's Cross Country squad nd both were integral parts of a fine season. anielle Konary was the lone senior on a women's oss country squad dominated by underclass nners. The seniors helped the Bucs to a win in e MMA Invitational and earned MMA team points the Ray Dwyer Invitational and the Alliance Meet.

Cross Country Team

The 1998-99 volleyball team struggled to a 5-21 record despite the effort of seniors Zoe Washnis, Kara Santos and Julie Penny. Penny was named to the State College Conference All -Tournament team and was a second-team All-Conference selection at season's end.

R.J. DiMattia served as sailing captain for two seasons and led the team to four MacMillan Cup and four Kennedy Cup competitions. Brian Hurley began his inter-collegiate sailing career as a junior and was instrumental in the teams effort at two MacMillan and a Kennedy Cup. Both seniors were part of a team that earned MMA a top 20 National ranting and a second-place finish in the 1999 Kennedy Cup, the national championship of collegiate sailing.

The women's varsity crew team began 1998-99 with an impressive showing at the Head of the Charles last fall and capped a strong spring season with a third-place finish at the New England Rowing Championships. For the second year in a row the Varsity Four was invited back to Lake Quinsigamond for the Champion International Regatta on May 16. Seniors Jess Bigelow, Meghan Carter, Nicole Brooks, Deirdre Carrigan and Kelly O'Neil were instrumental in the team's success as well as in the overall success of the program beginning with its elevation to varsity status two years ago.

BUC'S LACROSSE

Ken Case has a banner season for the 4-9 Buccaneers as he eclipsed both the career-goal scoring and all time point total records at MMA. Case led the Pilgrim League in scoring with 61 goals and 23 assists and was named ECAC "Player of the Week" in the final week of the season. Gary Bricher added 22 points and Tom Doherty 11 to the offensive effort. Pete DiSanto served a valuable role as backup goalie and Tim Fitzgerald, Matt McDevitt, John

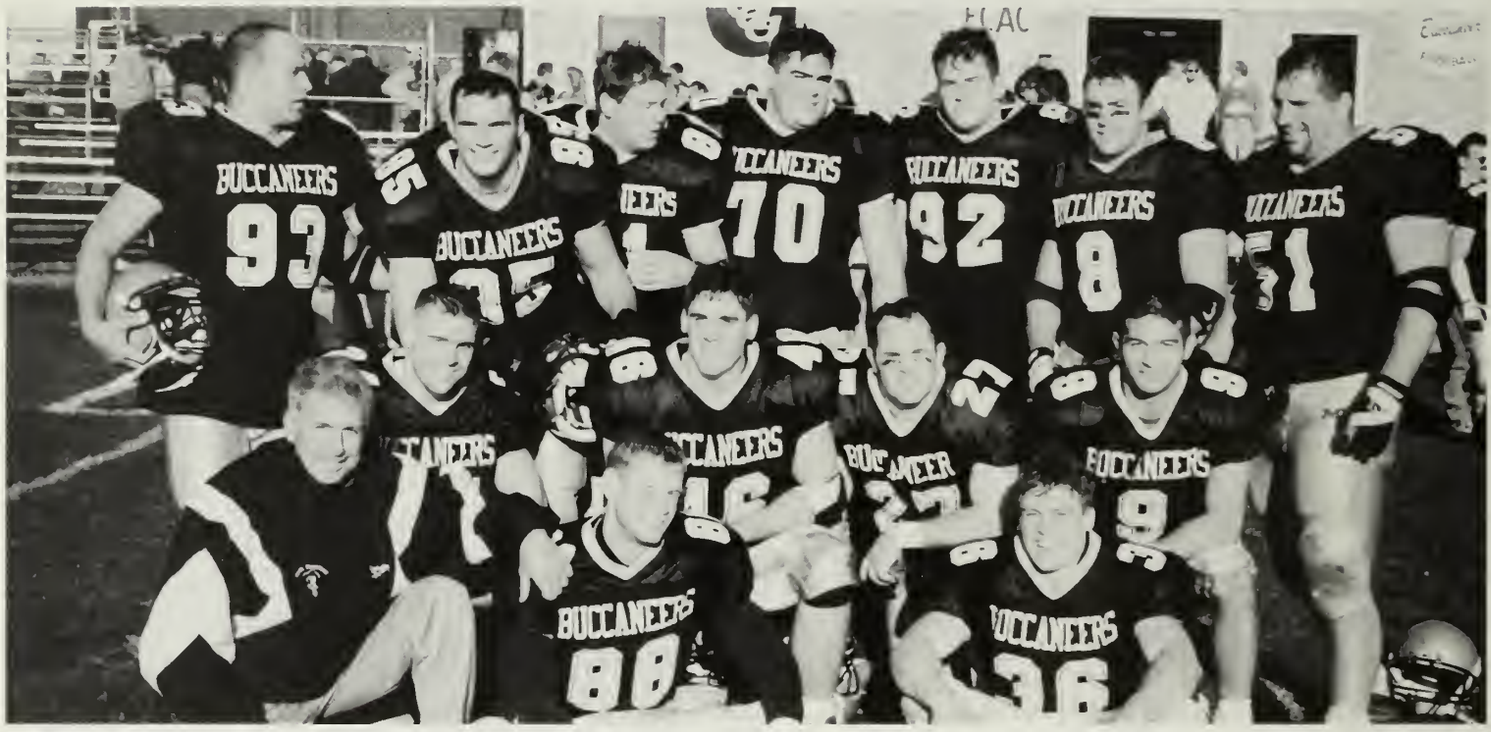
G. Bricher, K. Case, T. Doherty

Carey, Brian Baima, and Scott Chisholm were essential ingredients to a team that improved drastically from the start of the season to the final game.

MMA Football



Thirteen seniors led the '98 Bucs to a 6-4 record and a third-place finish in the New England Football Conference Red Division. Mike Mirka was named to the NEFC All-Star Team as well as to the ECAC All-New England second-team at linebacker. Mike Kelley broke the Academy record for career receptions and earned NEFC second-team recognition. Ryan Woodland became the all-time leading rusher in MMA history and was the recipient of the Hal Chalmers Award as the outstanding student-athlete in the 14-team conference. Ken Case played a key role in the MMA receiving corps and Jason Gilbeault handled all the punting duties and finished fourth-best in the Conference with a 35.5 yard average. Rich Ennis led the secondary with six interceptions and Erik Fihlman picked off two passes for the second leading passes for the second leading pass defense in all of the NEFC. Mike Haikola and Matt McDevitt led a rugged MMA rushing defense with Adam Schmid making a solid contributions as a starting linebacker. Tim Mone completed four years in the offensive line as the only senior in the unit and Andy Smith moved to tight end from the secondary in his senior season filling a key role for the offense.
